Long-Drawn-Out Contest Between Lynchburg and Norfolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va. July 11.—In a long-drawn-out contest, which was uninter-esting, save for the closeness of the Norfolk and Lynchburg played Cleven innings, 2 to 2, this afternoon, Brandon did not steady down until af-Per the third or fourth inning, but before that he was master of the situation, and his support then was fine or Murdock's throw to the plate in the minth. This tied the score. A double-header is to be played Wednesday.

With Clarke on second, running fo first paping, Murdock was caught in a rin-down between third and home, and around and was about to score when Murdock was tagged at third. Clarke was then called out, and he imme-diately gave notice of a protest of the

PITTSBURG LOSES

Philadelphia Nationals Win Most One-Sided Game of Season.

McQuillen So Effective That Not a Local Player Reaches Third.

Pittsburg. Pa., July 11.—Pittsburg was to-day shut out by Philadelphia by the most one sided score of 18 to 0. McQuillen was so effective that not a Pittsburg player reached third base. The local team had five pitchers on the rubber, and the Philadelphias hit each with the greatest freedom. Bransfield was the star. He made five hits, including two triples, batted in eight runs, and scored three himself. In the ninth inning, the Philadelphias scored nine times. Thirteen men went to pat, nine of them hit safely, Bransfield and Doolan getting two apiece, and one got his base on balls. Webb and White were the litchers, White succeeding Webb after six runs were in. The score:

Norfolk's Youthful Boxers Get Warning in Police Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., July 11—Youthful aspirants for puglilistic honors in Norfolk can box with gloves, but they must not strip for the event, as is the rule for ringside events, was the decision of Justice Simmons, in the Police Court, this morning, when Thomas Stapicton was arraigned on the charge of being the promoter, inasmuch as he furnished the gloves for the contest. Stapleton was fined $5 and costs. Stapleton was fined $5 and costs. Justice Simmons lectured Lam Lackman, ten years of age, one of the participants, but the other one, known as "Jackey." was not apprehended.

The fight occurred Saturday in the vacant lot behind the Academy of Music. Detective Powers heard the enthusiasm and noise, and on investigating, found Lackman and "Jackey" stripped in true ring fashion, and Lackman was just getting to his feet after being floored by a stiff uppercut The boys were using gloves loaned by Stapleton. "Jackey" scaled a fence and escaped. Sispleton and Sam Lackman were arrested.

A very impleasant incident occurred in the beginning of the fourth inning, when Putnam, for Petersburg drove a fly to left field and Burke started after it. To the average spectator it looked as if Burke got the ball on the bounce. Umpire Davis decided it so, and Burke ran in from the field angrily and threateningly towards Davis. Hot words were exchanged and Burke was ordered off the grounds. Manager Lawlor then appeared and threatened Davis and a brick was thrown at Davis. Both of appeared and threatened Davis and a brick was thrown at Davis, Both of these players were finally taken off the grounds by the police, and the game resumed. Opinion is divided as to the play, but the majority believe that Burke pulled the ball out of the grass and the Petersburg people applauded Davis in the action that he took. The score:
